INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of CN Employees' and Pensioners' Community Fund

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of CN Employees' and Pensioners' Community Fund (the "Entity"), which comprise:

- the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2018
- the statement of operations for the year then ended
- the statement of changes in net assets for the year then ended
- the statement of cash flows for the year then ended
- and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies (Hereinafter referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Entity as at December 31, 2018, and its results of operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian Accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements" section of our auditors' report.

We are independent of the Entity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Entity's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.
 - The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Entity to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year ended December 31, 2018

The CN Employees' and Pensioners' Community Fund (the "Community Fund") was registered on September 9, 1999. Initially focused on the province of Québec, the scope of the Community Fund widened on October 13, 2006 to include all CN employees and pensioners located in the province of Ontario. In 2012, the Helping Hand Program was launched and the Community Fund began to distribute donations, subsequent to approval from the Helping Hand Committee, to CN employees and their immediate families under the Helping Hand Program (Note 6). On February 8, 2013, the Community Fund amended its incorporating document by filing supplementary letters patent in view to extend geographically the activities across Canada.

The Community Fund distributes these donations, subsequent to approval by committees representing the donors, to various community and national organizations which are involved in charitable and/or medical well-being activities who have a federal charity registration number.

The Community Fund, a charitable organization registered under the Income Tax Act, is exempt from income taxes and is able to issue donation receipts for income tax purposes.

1. Significant accounting policies:

The Community Fund prepares its financial statements in accordance with Part III of the CPA Canada Handbook - Accounting Standards for Private Sector Not-for-Profit Organizations.

(a) Revenue recognition:

The Community Fund follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

Externally restricted contributions, such as amounts received from employees, pensioners and sponsors, from fundraising events or for the Helping Hand Program (Note 6), are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are recognized.

Revenue from contributions is recognized on the statement of revenues and expenses, net of expenses when pertaining to fundraising activities. CN subsidizes all administrative expenses related to the operation of the Community Fund in order to ensure each dollar of employees and retirees' contributions are directed towards the charitable organization of their choice. Contributions for the year do not include contributed materials and services.

(b) Contributions receivable:

Contributions are recorded as a receivable when the amount can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(c) Financial instruments:

Financial instruments are recorded at fair value on initial recognition. Equity instruments that are quoted in an active market are subsequently measured at fair value. Fluctuations in the fair value of the equity instruments held by the Community Fund for the Helping Hand Program as well as any divided income earned by these equity instruments are recorded as an adjustment to contributions received in advance - Helping Hand Program and they are not recognized on the statement of revenues and expenses as the income is restricted in its use.

Transaction costs related to the sale of financial instruments measured at fair value are expensed as incurred.

Financial assets are assessed for impairment on an annual basis at the end of the fiscal year if there are indicators of impairment. If there is an indicator of impairment, the Community Fund determines if there is a significant adverse change in the expected amount or timing of future cash flows from the financial asset. If there is a significant adverse change in the expected cash flows, the carrying value of the financial asset is reduced to the highest of the present value of the expected cash flows, the amount that could be realized from selling the financial asset or the amount the Community Fund expects to realize by exercising its right to any collateral. If events and circumstances reverse in a future period, an impairment loss will be reversed to the extent of the improvement, not exceeding the initial carrying value.

(d) Foreign currency transactions:

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars using year-end exchanges rates. Revenues and expenses are translated throughout the year at the prevailing exchange rate on the date of the transaction.

2. Donations paid in advance:

Donations made by the Community Fund for its ensuing year campaign are reflected as donations paid in advance.

The following represents donations paid in advance:

6. Helping Hand Program:

In 2012, Mr. Claude Mongeau, CN's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") at the time, and his wife, Guylaine, donated to the Community Fund 84,000 common shares of CN to set up a program that provides financial assistance to CN employees and their immediate families to help their children with special needs, whether physical or intellectual. Employees submit their applications, which are reviewed, approved and processed by the Helping Hand Committee.

Proceeds from the sale of these shares are to be used only for the purpose of providing financial assistance to CN employees and their immediate families under the Helping Hand Program as well as to cover the Program's administrative expenses. Any income generated by the shares is restricted for the same purpose.

The value of the investment at year-end includes an unrealized gain of $906,966 resulting from the change in fair value of the common shares of CN from when the shares were donated on June 19, 2012 to December 31, 2018 (2017 - $1,304,864).

On August 8, 2016, Mr. Claude Mongeau donated to the Community Fund an additional 12,000 common shares of CN. The number of shares outstanding at December 31, 2018 is 23,706 (2017 - 29,298).

The following table summarizes the assets available for the Helping Hand Program:

2018	23,706	101.110	2,396,914

7. Financial risks:

The Community Fund is exposed to price risk related to equity securities held as part of the Helping Hand Program. Equity securities are subject to fluctuations in price due to the specific performance of the underlying company of which the shares are held. The Community Fund's equity holdings are limited to CN stock. As a result, the Community Fund is exposed to a concentration of price risk due to the undiversified nature of these holdings. Fluctuations in the value of the equity holdings could have a significant impact on the funds available for distribution under the Helping Hand Program.

8. Comparative information:

Certain comparative information has been reclassified to conform to the financial statement presentation adopted in the current year.
